dedication

McKendree College may be compared to a traveler, a sojourner who has had many adventures. On this trip, one remembers names like Bishop McKendree, Peter Cartwright, C. C. Hall, Peter Akers, and many others too numerous to mention.

From time to time, other giants have stepped upon the path of McKendree's 134 year journey. The theme of this yeor's MCKENDREAN is "Crossroads." At this crossroad, the leaders of McKendree are duty bound to make those decisions that will make McKendree greater than its founders anticipated.

With all this in mind, the MCKENDREAN staff confidently dedicates the 1962 yearbook to DR. MAX P. ALLEN.

phyllis nies

Phyllis Nies came to McKendree in 1958. She immediately began to take an active part in many campus activities. As a major in physical education, she taught McKendree girls' physical education for two years.

She was a member of the Student Congress and Sigma Tau Delta, national English fraternity. A final touch to a wonderful college career occurred when Phyllis was crowned Homecoming Queen of 1961.

As a member of Stage Crafters, Alpha Psi Omega, Pi Kappa Delta, Debate Council, Public Affairs Forum, and M.S.M., Rogert Knox fulfilled the requirements necessary for becoming a member of Who's Who. A student from Mt. Vernon, Roger took an active part in speech and drama activities during his four years at McKendree.

This yearbook displays Roger's capable leadership for he was editor-in-chief. He was instrumental in making this a book that will be cherished by students for years.

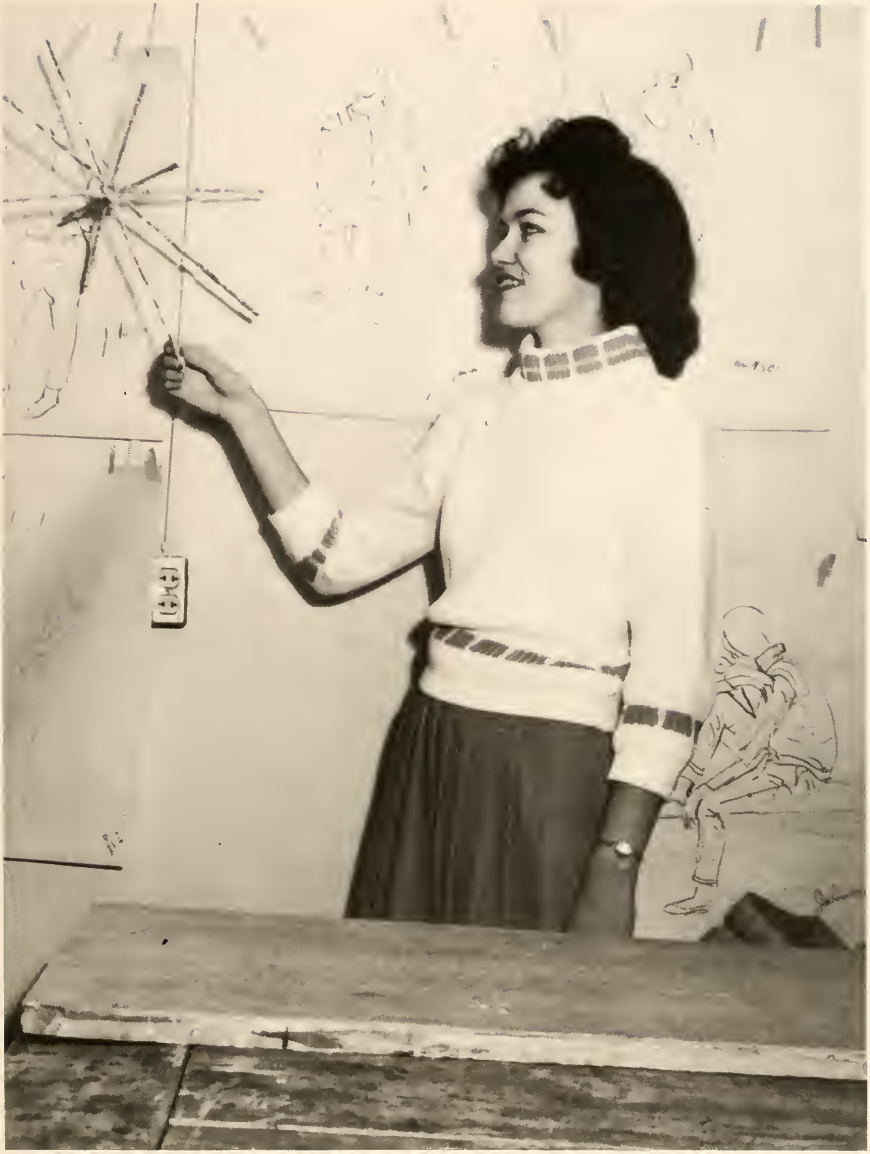
Orval came to McKendree from O'Fallon, Illinois. As a physical educator, he has taken an active part in intramural sports. He is well-known for his basketball and volleyball skills. He can be found at the gym each day boys' physical education is taught. Teaching this class fulfills his requirement for sports leadership. Orval's minor is biology.

Orval's major extracurricular activity is baseball. He has played all four years and has lettered each year.



sandra ozment

While preparing for her career as an elementary school teacher, Sandra has minored in art and majored in elementary educatian. She has taken full advantage of McKendree's program of "learning by doing" while practice teaching.

Sandra is active in both Sigma Tau Delta and Clio. She was secretary of Sigma Tau her junior year and is presently serving as a critic in Clio.

Carl Carter was one of the busiest students of McKendree College. His participation and leadership in MSM, Kappa Chi, and the Religious Life Council were helpful in preparation for the ministry. A student from Robinson, Carl was president of Philo, MSM, and the senior class.

Besides being active here on campus, he is married and has had a student charge throughout his college career.

sam hipple

Sam Hipple, a math major from Mascoutah, spent much of his time at the gym. "Sharp-shooting Sam" has been one of the mainstays in McKendree's battle for the basketball conference title the past four years.

Sam has served as president of Sigma Zeta, national science organization his senior year. He also has shown capable leadership as Student Body President.

His character, leadership, and academic standing have made Sam a proper choice for Who's Who Among American College Students.

As I have tried to show throughout this book, McKendree College has faced many crossroads in all of her events, classes, and organizations. As one coming into an intersection, I have considered it a challenge and an honor to have had the opportunity to edit the '62 McKENDREAN.

I am proud that I chose McKendree, a college with a rich heritage of Methodism and educational standards. While preparing the historical account for this year's book, the staff and I have become keenly aware that the campus on which we all walk is hallowed ground. I have not hallowed these premises any more than the thousands of McKendree students that have gone before me. The knowledge-red bricks, that have built McKendree walls, are not fading but are gaining character as they continue to mature.

As a McKendrean, I hope that the memories contained within these pages will serve as a reminder that McKendree has a revered past and a crowning future.
